Message from Father Bobbin

Dear Parishioners,

Last week we started looking at the first sacrament, Baptism, by first trying to understand original sin. When we come into this world, we inherit a human nature that is damaged. We are not in the right relationship with our Creator.

But God loves us and wants to get us back. He wants to adopt us into His family and welcome us home into eternal life someday. Jesus makes this possible by His death and resurrection. How? Because Jesus was perfectly obedient to His Father (even though it got Him in trouble with the authorities, leading to His death). Adam and Eve disobeyed God. We disobey God when we sin. Jesus saves us by His perfect obedience. His death and resurrection makes it possible for us to be freed from original sin, forgiven for any and all personal sins, and welcomed into heaven.

But how does this happen? How can our Lord's death and resurrection, which happened two thousand years ago in another part of the world affect me today? The answer is Baptism. When we are baptized, we are each joined to the death and resurrection of Jesus. Original sin is "washed away" (even though we still struggle with its effects) and God the Holy Spirit comes to dwell in us. This means we literally have divinity in us. We share in God's own nature, which means we can be His adopted sons and daughters. We become members of His family, the Church. We are destined for eternal life.

Yet, Baptism is no guarantee of heaven. It is a commitment to live like a son or daughter of God. Baptism is the beginning of life as a disciple of Jesus, striving to imitate Jesus, the Son of God.

In Christ,
Fr. Bobbin

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 49:3, 5-6 | 1 Cor 1:1-3 | Jn 1:29-34

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I have struggled when doing work that feels unseen. Has anyone noticed that the floors were mopped today? Do my students care about the feedback I provide on their writing? Does my supervisor notice the extra time I put into my work? In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist announcing Jesus as "the Lamb of God." John has been preparing for the coming of Christ and now that Jesus has arrived, his role is to step aside and encourage his followers to move their gaze toward Christ, the Messiah. Although we know John's name and his faithfulness, it would have been easy for him to assume that his work would have been forgotten — overshadowed by the signs and wonders of Christ himself. But in his humility, this is exactly what John seemingly wanted. His life and words were focused solely on proclaiming the coming of Christ. While I may have been tempted to say, "Please don't forget about what / did," John responded faithfully to God's call to preach and prepare for Christ's coming, without worry of receiving credit for his actions. And in our lives, too, what matters is not whether our work is appreciated or noticed, but whether our actions are in response to God's call to holiness.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Despite not knowing whether his work would extend for years or decades, John the Baptist continued to lead others toward repentance. He did not know the full scope of his role in the plan of salvation, but he trusted in the voice of God. Like John, we are called to persevere in faithfulness to the work that God has called us to do, right where we are. When we persevere in our faith, living according to the teachings of Christ and our vocation, we give witness to the truth that the God who called us is worthy of our trust.

WITNESS

Consider the countless men and women who have gone before us who remained faithful to God's call. Their lives bear witness to their trust in God, in big and in small ways, sometimes visible, but often hidden. What simple acts of faithfulness are you being called to persevere in today? Recommit to practicing faithfulness in the big — as well as mundane — aspects of daily living.

Nativity Happenings

Nativity is currently accepting inquiries for enrollment for the 2026-2027 school year. Individual meetings, school tours and shadow days are being scheduled for possible enrollment. Please contact Mrs. Jennifer Daubert in the Development Office with any enrollment questions.

Open House & Registration for the 2026-2027 school year at Nativity is scheduled for Sunday, January 25, 2026 from 1 to 3 pm at the school. Faculty, staff, administration and coaches will be available to answer questions. Tours will be given and tuition assistance drawings will be available for those who register. Please contact Mrs. Jennifer Daubert @ 570-622-1810 with any questions.

Assumption BVM School—Open House

Assumption BVM School will be hosting an Open House at our school on Sunday, Feb. 1, 2026 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Visit us to see some of the students' work, student Science Fair projects, browse at our Book Fair and meet the teachers and students. We look forward to showing off our wonderful school.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life from our diocese and our families. Inspire men to imitate Christ, the Eternal High Priest, in sacrificial service to your Church. Move the hearts of men and women to offer themselves wholly to You in poverty, chastity and obedience. Send them as laborers for Your harvest. Inspire the faithful to support them with prayers and sacrifice. Raise up holy families who foster openness to your call. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
